

Look who won round 1...

Subject: Look who won round 1...

From: Alan Johnson <AlanJ@Victory-Group.com>

Date: 12/16/2016 04:40 PM

To: liz Grandvision <Liz@grandvision.org>, Lorena Parker <lparker@sanpedrobid.com>, "Elise Swanson (eswanson@sanpedrochamber.com)" <eswanson@sanpedrochamber.com>, "Eisenberg, Eric (ericeoban@gmail.com)" <ericeoban@gmail.com>, "Greg Morena (greg@thealbright.com)" <greg@thealbright.com>, "Gary Larson (garyrlarsson@gmail.com)" <garyrlarsson@gmail.com>, Eric Johnson <Ericj@Victory-Group.com>

2016 Curbed Cup round 1 results! San Pedro beats North Hollywood

2 comments

There have been some surprises

by Bianca Barragan Dec 16, 2016, 4:10pm PST

- tweet
- share
- pin
- Rec

CURBED
CUP 2016

The Curbed Cup, our annual award for the neighborhood of the year, is kicking off with 8 or 16 neighborhoods vying for the prestigious (fake) trophy. Voting for each pairing ends 24 hours after it begins. Let the eliminations commence!

The first round of Los Angeles's Curbed Cup has come to a close and we've had some suspenseful upsets, with a handful of our top-seed neighborhoods losing their matchups. Now, the eight, round-one winners are taking another step closer to being crowned 2016's Neighborhood of the Year.

There have been some very close races. Booming (13) Chinatown scored a narrow but decisive victory, capturing 52.5 percent of the votes when it squared off against (4) West Hollywood.

In an even tighter race, artsy (12) HiFi barely beat out (5) downtown Hollywood, winning 50.1 percent of the votes.

Not every bout was a nail-biter: Dense, fun (10) Koreatown won handily over 62 percent of the votes in its bout with (7) East Hollywood.

There's more to come. Take a look at the updated bracket below to see which neighborhoods will face off in the next round of Curbed Cup, and don't forget to cast your votes as the eight winning 'hoods prepare for a new and stiffer round of competition.

- Curbed Cup 2016 [Curbed LA]